Enforcement of Zika Virus Regulations on China Imports

Dear Valued Customer,

Please be advised that effective immediately, the General Administration of Quality Supervision, Inspection and Quarantine (AQSIQ) of the People's Republic of China has implemented Zika Virus prevention measures which require mandatory anti-mosquito treatment on all China import cargoes. The United States has been added to a list of 55 countries and nations that require anti-mosquito fumigation treatment for shipments to China.

Below are the origins requiring anti-mosquito fumigation:

Region (Count)	Country/Nation
Americas (43)	Anguilla, Antigua and Barbuda, Argentina, Aruba, Barbados, Belize, Bolivia, Dutch Bonaire, Brazil, Colombia, Costa Rica, Cuba, Curacao, Dominica, Dominican Republic, Ecuador, El Salvador, French Guiana, Grenada, Guadeloupe, Guatemala, Guyana, Haiti, Honduras, Jamaica, Martinique, Mexico, Nicaragua, Panama, Paraguay, Peru, Puerto Rico, the island of Saint Barthelemy, Saint Lucia, Saint Martin, Saint Vincent and the Grenadines, Dutch Saint Martin, Suriname, Trinidad and Tobago, British Turks and Caicos Islands, USA, United States Virgin Islands, Venezuela Bolivarian Republic
South-East Asia (2)	Indonesia, Thailand
Western Pacific (8)	American Samoa, Fiji, the Marshall Islands, Federated States of Micronesia, Samoa, Tonga, Philippines, Vietnam
Africa (2)	Cape Verde, Guinea-Bissau

Responsibility

All shipments originating from a country or nation above are required to present a Mosquito Eradication Certificate during the customs clearing process. While a certified proof of treatment should be obtained prior to cargo loading, in the event that the fumigation has not been performed at origin, the consignee can apply for mosquito eradication with the China Inspection and Quarantine Bureau (CIQ) and obtain the Mosquito Eradication Certificate. The service and related fees applied by CIQ vary by port and location.

We thank you for your continued support and understanding. Please contact your local Hanjin sales representative for any inquiries.

Sincerely yours,
